MESSAGE:

Our hearts were filled with joy when reading the loving message from your National Convention, which conveyed a sense of the unified and dynamic consultations among the delegates, so befittingly focused on the path that lies before your community. It is our earnest hope that the dear believers in Canada, as they embark upon the newly inaugurated Nine Year Plan, will strive with courage and determination to impart hope and assurance to increasing numbers of their compatriots and draw them into the Faith's ever-widening embrace. Be assured of our supplications at the Sacred Threshold that, with the unfailing assistance of the Abhá Beauty, your community may be enabled to consolidate what has already been achieved and to arise unreservedly to carry forward the vital work before them.
